Side Walks.

Is the city council of Columbia not going to extend the concrete sidewalks within the town limits? The citizens residing on the turnpike beyond the bridge which spans Russell's creek, are of the opinion that such needed and important improvements should not be discontinued so long as they have not fared like the citizens living on the three other main thoroughfares of the town. On Jamestown street, Greensburg street and Burksville street, concrete sidewalks have been built to the town limits, but on Campbellsville street the citizens have not been so fortunate. After a long time, and with much imploring and begging. the late board of Trustees did finally pass an ordinance requiring a side walk built by the property owners as far out as the Russell creek bridge, which has been complied with, and for which we people on that end are thankful, but are those citizens owning property beyond the bridge on the "exempt" list? If they are not, why should they not be required to build sidewalks just like the ones living on this side of the bridge toward town? We invite the members of the new council to walk out that way some time when the roads are muddy and see what we have to contend with in getting to our homes, and if after investigation they feel we should not have any sidewalks, very well, but if they think we should have them, an extension to the town limits is all we ask. There is another sidewalk that ought to be built in the town. It would be a credit to Columbia, as well as to indidicate the progressiveness and public spirit of the city council. That walk should begin at the intersection of the Campbellsville turnpike and the street leading to the Lindsey-Wilson school, and extend up to the school building. We ask a consideration on these needed improvements.

Fifteen Hundred Lives Lost.

The greatest ocean disaster in the history of the world occurred on Saturday the 14th inst. A dispatch from New York says:

New York, April 15 .- At the bottom of the sea, in water two miles deep, to-day lies the wreck of the largest steamship ever built, and she took with her more than fifteen hundred souls.

The ship was the Titanic, the largest steamer afloat, on her maiden voyage across the Atlantic. Off the coast of New Foundland, in the darkness of night, the big liner struck an iceberg. The boat sank in a few hours.

How many lives were lost is not known. The sister ship of the Titanic, the Olympic, which was near the scene of the accident, sent a wireless message tonight stating:

"Loss likely to total eighteen hundred souls."

This seems to be the most accurate information that was obtainable to-night regarding the extent of the greatest disaster in the history of the sea. Earlier reports had indicated that the loss of life would be fifteen hundred.

FIRST NEWS OF DISASTER.

The first news of the accident was received by the wireless operator at Cape Race. It said:

"Have struck an iceberg. We are badly damaged. Rush aid."

Within half an hour the Virginian of the Allan line had been communicated with and her captain was headed directly to the scene. Shortly afterward the Virginian sent the following to her local agents:

"Titanic says she is badly damaged as result of striking an iceburg. She demands immediate assistance and we are rushing to her help."

From time to time other wireless advices were received. In each it was stated that the Titanic was still in touch, and it was not until 12:27 that the Virginian reported she had lost the Titanic.

The weather this morning was clear and calm, the pumps of the Titanic were being worked to their utmost, it was stated, and while the forward holes were full of water the water tight compartments were holding.

The great steel plow of the Titanic crumbled before the impact with the enormous lceberg. As the smash came, however, the water-tight compartment doors closed automatically. Immediately the wireless appeals for aid were sent out and the response was immediate.

AID COMFS LATE.

Although several ships caught the wireless message asking for immediate assistance, only the Carpathea reached the scene in time to be of any material assistance. Great Famine In China.

Three millions of people in Central China are on the verge of starvation. Last summer the worst floods in forty years destroyed the crops in an area of 50,000 square miles. Many have already died of hunger, and unless prompt relief is given, multitudes of men, women and children must perish.

During the last few weeks the political and military news from China has absorbed the attention and interest of the world to the exclusion of the needs of the hungry millions. No harvest can be expected until May. Until then the famine will be growing daily more acute. The people to be relieved are chiefly

The committee will employ as many as possible of these able to labor in building dikes, and in such other works as will help to prevent the recurrence of flood and famine. This work is in line with the recommendation of C. D. Jameson, an engineer sent to China by the American Red Cross. All labor is to be paid for in grain, and not in money.

As president of the American Red Cross, President Taft has issued a proclamation asking the people of the United States help the people of China. has joined with the other officers of the Red Cross in requesting this citizens' committee in making known the facts. The Chinese government and people are doing what they can to relieve the situation, but they can meet only a fraction of the need.

The "Jelly Wobble."

The following telegram from Washington, printed in a New York paper, is either a gross libel or an indication of decadence in the Washington Smart Set:

"The Dancing Fifty of the Play-house Club, which includes Mrs. Alice Longworth, Postmaster-General Hitchcock, Preston Gibson, Margaret Draper, Miss Helen Taft, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter and the Misses Meyers are eagerly practicing the new dance, "The Jelly Wobble." It is Oriental in effect and is rapidly displacing the "Turkey Trot" in society's esteem.

"Only one or two of the youngset frown on these dances. Chief among the objectors is Miss Helen Taft, who while an enthusiastic member of the Dancing Fifty, refuses to turkey trot, devil dance or jelly wobble. Many matrons also disapprove heartily of these new dances."

A description of the dance is given, showing it to be the 'grizzly bear' in a state of higher-or perhaps "lower" is the word-evolution. It is announced that Preston Gibson, formerly of Lexington, is the organizer of the "dancing Fifty" and a leading "jelly wobbler."

Breed to the best string of Stock in Kenfucky for the Least Money

This Celebrated young Stallion will make the present season (1912) at our barn at Roley, Ky., for the sum of $12.00 for a mare colt, or $10.00 for a horse colt. Rex Paull is registered 2928 in the American Saddle Horse Breeding DESRIPTION: Rex Paull is 16 hinds high, a dark bay, with fine mane and tail. He is 5 years old and weighs 1195 pounds.

Rex Paull has defeated more Stallions in the Fairs, as a show horse, than any other horse in this part of the State. His colts won the blues over the colts of four counties. His colts eleven months old, 700 pounds, and is 142 hands

We insure all colts to get up and suck. Lean retained on all colts. All care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur.

ROYAL PEACOCK

At the same time and place we will offer the service of Royal Peacock, who is a combined saddle and harness horse, nine years old, a model in form and action. He is the sire of some of the best colts in Adair county. He will be permitted to serve mares for $7.00. This is a rare opportunity to breed to this horse, as you will probably never have another chance to breed for this small fee. He was sized by Old Peacock, owned by Thompson Bros., Lebanon, Tenn. His first dam was Capt, Harper's blooded mare, by Young Clipper He will stand on the insure plan, the money due when the colt is foaled or mare parted with, or traded or sold.

BEAUCHAMP

Will make the present season, (1912) at our stable at Roley at $8.00 to insure a living colt all right.

BEAUCHAMP is 8 years old, 15½ hands high, black with mealy points, heavy bone and muscle. Beauchamp has proven himself to be one of the best mule Jacks in this part of the State, imparting size and style to his gets. His mules were among the best in the county last year, and brought top prices.

Beauchamp was sired by Ben McFarland's fine Jack and his dam was a well bred Jennet by John McFarland's 16

Money due when colt is foaled, mare bred to other stock, traded or removed from neighborhood. All care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur.

THE TITANIC TRAGEDY.

[From The Courier-Journal.]

Horror, helplessness, awe pity oppress the human mind and heart in the realization of such a Titanic.

That such a structure as this imperial ship, the latest, the supreme, triumphant achievement of man in his boasted mastery of the sea, sailing forth on her first voyage with absolute and apparently justified confidence, freighted with more than two thousand mortals, and with the riches of many lands, should be crushed like an egg shell and, on one of the most traveled roads of the ocean, disappear beneath two miles of water before the marvel of wireless telegraphy could bring her aid, benumbs us anew with our pettiness and feebleness in the grip of the forces of nature, whose puny puppets instead of whose arrogant masters. we are.

The Perfect Laxative For Elderly People

Most elderly people are troubled in this way, with accompanying symptoms of belching, drowsiness after eating, headaches and general lassitude. Frequently there is difficulty of digesting even light food. Much mental trouble ensues, as it is hard to find a suitable remedy. First of all the advice may be given that elderly people should not use salts, cathartic pills or powders, waters or any of the more violent purgatives. What they need, women as well as men, is a mild laxative tonic, one that is pleasant to take and yet acts without griping.

say they take it at regular intervals and in that way not only maintain general good health, but that they have not in years felt as good as they do now. You will do well to always have a bottle of it in the house. It is good for all the family.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St.,

Age has its attractions no less than youth in a more serene and quieter life. But it is this very life of rest without sufficient exercise that brings with it those disorders that arise from inactivity. Chief of these are a chronic, persistent constipation.

More About the School Law.

Editor News:

all of the letters in the "News" from various readers, commenting on the common schools of Ky., compulsory school attendance law, I thought I would give my opinion on the subject, although it may not meet the approval of any; but I think it better, however, than any expressed by any of the other writers.

I have been a teacher in the common schools of Russell Co. Kentucky for the last four years. I believe I have had reasonably good success, and have been a close observer as to the needs of the pupils.

I believe the time fast approach ing when we will have a much extended compulsory school law as suggested by some of the writers; and trust that the time is near that we can welcome such a law. The enactment of such a law now would be immature, unless preceded by laws providing for certain other reforms.

Some of our school houses are not comfortable either in summer or winter, being poorly lighted, heated, ventilated and not enough seating capacity Our public roads (which the children have to travel) are usually in bad condition. For a short time their attendance is prevented by high water, there being few bridges; and back of all of this are the many indigent children who will have to be looked after more closely. Unenforced, the proposed compulsory school attendance law will

Happy the girl, or woman, who has never suffered from any of the diseases of womanhood! Or, if she has been a sufferer, happy is she if she has learned of the wonderful benefits of Cardui, the woman's tonic!

Cardui is a gentle, tonic remedy, for women's ailments. It is a natural medicine—safe, harmless, purely vegetable. It has been in successful use for more than 50 years. It has cured thousands. It should do the same for you.

Mrs. Mary Neely, of Denver, Tenn., says, "I think there is no tonic on earth, as good as Cardui. I used it with the very best results. I had backache and nearly everything a woman could suffer with, until I took Cardui. Now, I feel better than I have for two years. I shall always recommend Cardui to other suffering women. I can't praise it too highly. As a medicine for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui is safe and reliable. Try it, today.

JORDAN PEACOCK.

Jordan Peacock, No. 1I48 will make the present season at McKinney, Lincoln Co. I have placed him in the hands of Mr. Dick Scudder for this season.

NOBLE PEACOCK.

This fine young Stallion will make the season at my barn in Gradyville, Ky., at the low price of $15.00 to insure a living colt. Noble Peacock, is of Jordan Peacock, first dam by Artist Jewel. 2 dam by Cronwell Denmark 73, 3rd, dam by Artist 75. This is one Herschel Dunbar, wife and iit- of the best bred Stallion in Kentucky and is a first-class Saddle horse, has been shown severals times and always in the money. If you want to raise a good colt and one that will bring a good price bred to Noble.

TWO FINE JACKS.

My two fine Jacks will serve mares for $10.00 for a mare mule and $8.00 for a horse mule, to insure a mare mith foal.

They are two of the best Jacks that was ever in Adair county. -Last year was the first season for Black Diamond and the second season for Highway. Their colts sold last fall from $70.00 to $125.00. Average $91.83.

Parties that sold some of these mules: Henry Parson 1 for $100.00; P. N. Blades 2 for $250.00; Luther England 1 for $85.00; Albert Brummett 1 for $85.00; Robert O. Keltner 1 for $80.00; C. M. Hindman 1 for $77.50; Huston Bradshaw 1 for $75.00, and Squire Kemp 1 for $80.00.

These are just a few that brought these prices. I measured 46 of Highways colts last fall that was from 3 feet 5 in. to 3 feet 9 in. at 7 days old, they averaged 3 feet 6 in. Now if you want working for some fertilizer Co., ning at 3 o'clock. Bro.
